For the ninth year running, Quantum Sails is excited to announce it will again be a Technical Partner for Yacht Club Costa Smeralda for 2023. The relationship began in 2015 when Quantum supplied custom sails for the J/70 fleet. Over the years, Quantum has grown its commitment to the YCCS sailing community with onsite J/70 coaching and support, along with other events, products, and services.

Quantum Sails supports the YCCS mission to deliver world-class competition, inclusivity, and a platform for the next generation of sailors. As Technical Partner, Quantum strives to help ensure the YCCS racing and cruising communities have the best possible experience on the water and get maximum enjoyment from this beloved sport.

“Through our joint values and emphasis on elevating the sport of sailing, this partnership has helped us deliver more support and benefits to our important Italian clientele.” said Ed Reynolds, President of Quantum Sails. “We couldn't be more proud to be embarking on our ninth year of this ongoing relationship with one of the most prestigious yacht clubs in the world.”

Quantum's dedication extends beyond the water and can be seen in the evolution of their products and services that provide ever-greater performance and customer satisfaction. The Quantum team is made up of the best in the industry and you can trust they understand your needs and are with you every step of the way whether you're cruising with your family, learning to sail, or competing for a championship title. Quantum is here to help you meet your sailing challenges—whatever those may be.

Look for Quantum experts at upcoming events at Yacht Club Costa Smeralda, including regatta support, seminars, and service. You may also contact Vittorio d'Albertas with any questions or to learn more about Quantum Sails and their commitment to YCCS.

ABOUT QUANTUM SAILS

At Quantum, we're connected to sailors everywhere through our love of sailing and our belief that facing every challenge head-on is infinitely rewarding. For us, that means challenging convention – especially if that's what it takes to help our customers and the sailing industry get to new, better places. As a company and as individuals, we embrace every single challenge you bring our way as our own.

Since 1996, we have focused on providing the best-performing products in sailing. Today, we're equally relentless about delivering a higher standard of service, customer care, education, support and mentorship. It's how we'll continue to help sailors at all levels pursue their passions and achieve their aspirations. Visit QuantumSails.com to learn more.
