Risk Statement

Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By allowing the child mentioned above to participate in the event I, the parent/guardian of the child, agree and acknowledge that:

- a) I am aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for exposing my child to such inherent risks;
- b) I have satisfied myself that my child has the necessary skill and knowledge to participate in the event and to deal with conditions that may arise in the course of a race;
- c) I will not allow my child to participate in the event whilst they are under the undue influence of alcohol, drugs or whilst otherwise unfit to participate;
- d) I am responsible for ensuring that the boat is in good order, equipped and insured (with adequate cover taking into account the value of the boats racing and the measure of damages likely to arise in the event of an accident);
- e) I am responsible for my child's property whether afloat or ashore;
- f) I accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by my own actions or omissions or actions or omissions of my child;
- g) the provision of a race management team, patrol boats and other officials and volunteers does not relieve me of my parental/guardianship responsibilities or my child of his/her responsibilities;
- h) it is my responsibility to familiarise myself and my child with any risks specific to this venue or this event drawn to our attention in any rules and information produced for the venue or event and to attend any safety briefing held for the event;
- i) the provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances.
- j) Competitors shall apply RRS Part 1 Fundamental Rule 3: "A boat is solely responsible for deciding whether or not to start or to continue racing". In summary, competitors agree that the Organizing Authority its servants, agents and sponsors and their representatives have no responsibility for loss of life, injury or for the loss of, or damage to any vessel or property.

Acceptance of the Rules

In addition, by allowing the child mentioned above to participate in the event, I, the parent/guardian of the child, and the person nominated below in loco parentis (where applicable), agree and acknowledge that:

- a) We, and my child, are bound by the rules as defined in the Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS) and all other rules that govern this event;
- b) my child may be required to participate in drug testing procedures and provide a urine sample under observation for analysis at an accredited laboratory.

Supervision

During the event (tick one box):

I will be responsible for my child throughout the event and during the time that he/she is afloat. I will be available at the event venue.

I appoint the person named below, who has agreed to act in loco parentis. He/she will be responsible for my child throughout the event and during the time that my child is afloat. He/she will be available at the event venue.
